

HEAR

MY

CRY

WRITTEN BY: LALONNA HAYNES

Trust And Obey

*I trust and obey, for there is no other way
To have peace with my heavenly Father
Come into my heart Lord Jesus
Clean out the hurt and dispel all my fears
Put hope into my life once more
As I walk in faith and obey Your commands
May Your small still voice calm me
As I walk amongst the shadows of my life
For Your outstretched arm strengthens me
As I trust and obey Your love captivates me
For it is You that makes my path straight
And now I have no need to fear
Now that I trust and obey my God always*

Hear My Cry

*In desperation we cry out to God
Seeking God's love, and His help.
Knowing that God hears and cares
We cry out to God, hear my cry.*

Cleansed

By Your cleansing blood
I am set free from the guilt of sin
Washing away, memories of my sins
All guilt taken, I now rejoice in my freedom
In my heart flows peace
By Jesus cleansing blood
Now I am free to worship, lifting holy hands
No longer am I entangled, brought low by sin
For His blood has cleansed me
For Jesus love has redeemed me
By His cleansing blood, I am free

Bent Low

Bent low to worship Thee, bent by the weight of sin
Not looking up, but to the foot of the cross
Where the Lamb of God's blood flowed
Bent low that Jesus may be lifted up
On bended knee Thy grace I see
The Lamb of God submitted on bended knee
To His Father's will
On bended knee, I submit to Thee
Bent low to lay down my gifts
Before Thee in sacrifice
On bended knee, I worship Thee, lift me up
Bent low I cry to Thee
There without distractions, I am strengthened
In humbled position as I worship
I am bent low
Bent low I can see the fallen, reaching out
In desperation waiting to be lifted up
By those who come on bended knee

My Security

My security comes from knowing You
And not from my being in control
As situations arise,
To You my thoughts take wing
All my schemes are to no avail
My security lies in relying on You
As I look to myself,
My plans are doomed to fail
As I look to You, I release being in control
My security is in knowing
You are on the Throne
And my taking over the situation always fails
My security is found in knowing when I fall
As a little child crying, with scraped knee
Father, You come along and pick me up
In You, heavenly Father my security lies

As Time Marches On

*As time marches on, I shall stand tall
Walking in the ways of my Lord
Never wavering in the day of trouble
Seeking always to please my King
As time marches on, to Thee I bow
Humbled by Thy mighty working hand
No longer fearfully cringing at life's door
As time marches on, I shall be strong
For Thy grace has met my every need*

A Contract

*A contract written on my heart
Sealed with the blood of the Lamb
Confirmed by my testimony
Shown in my new birth and life
Set in stone, Jesus my Rock
Established with my confession
A contract sealed forever with God*

Daily

Daily may I come and bow
Before the Cross of Calvary
Remembering what great a sacrifice
That was given that I may come
And there I drink of Living waters
Daily eating the Bread of Life
Knowing there, Jesus was sacrificed

As I Wait

As I wait, let my faith grow
As I wait, may I learn more
Sitting in Your presence
I am confidently assured
You have never failed me
Your arms stretched out
I learn to wait, by Your side
As I lean confidently on You

Fertile Ground

O Lord, make my heart fertile ground
Rich soil that Your Word can grow in Take out the rocks of hurts and regrets
Weeds of bitterness and disappointment pull out
And then plant Your love, peace and joy in me
Let my heart be fertile ground for Your love
Place in me precious seeds of forgiveness
Plant in me a new heart, Your heart of love
Put a hedge of protection around my heart
That Your new growth in me, not be trampled down
Have Your Holy Spirit fall on me, as the morning dew
Let my good deeds reach up to You, as I sing Your praise
That all may see the fertile ground, You produced in me
Create in me fertile ground where Your love may abound
O yes, Lord create in my heart now, soil made fertile ground

Take Your Time

Take Your time with me
Go as slow as need be
That I may come to maturity
Fruit may only come after pruning
A garden only grows after hoeing
Take Your time with me
Careful thought put into my maturing
That I may grow through daily reading
In my trials may You teach me
In my prayers may You reach me
Take Your time with me

Catch

Catch my falling soul
Cast it to the wind, let me fly again
Give me wings to take flight on
As I feel Your hands lifting me
Once again I will soar above
The hardships of life
All the trials, burdens and anxiety
Can not keep me down
For You have given me flight
Catch my falling soul
As I repent and humble myself
You lift me high above the mundane
How can I stay the same
For Your love has caught my soul
Catch my falling soul
It can not take flight on it's own
Let me take flight with you
Catch my soul now

Nothing But God

*Nothing but God will do
When I know not where to go
When I know not what to do
I know nothing but God will do
I know God will meet my need
I know God will satisfy my soul
When I know not what to say
When I know fear or pain
Nothing but God will do*

Faith To Obey

Faith to obey
That I may walk in Your ways
Faith that makes me stand strong
Faith to take Your hand
As You lead me along
Faith that dispels all fear,
And I know that You are near
Faith that keeps my eyes on You
Faith to obey as I step out in love
Faith that brings me nearer to You
O, give me faith to obey
That I may walk in Your ways
Faith to obey Your every command
Faith to obey You every day

Change Me

*Lord, help me to not fail You
Help me in my weakness
Lord, help me to stand strong
Help me to do no wrong
Lord, help me to believe in You
Help me to hear Your voice*

*Change me that I may show Your love
Change me that I may do Your work
Change my thoughts my desires
Change me to be more like You*

Close To You

With a thankful heart, I grow close to You
Humbled in prayer, I seek Your face
Confessing brings me close to You
The desire of my heart is to know You
An honest heart opens the way to You
The heart of obedience pleases You
With a prayerful heart may I grow close to You

Works

*Work, O Lord in the recesses of my mind,
In the shallows of my heart
To the hidden dark parts bring Light
Spring forth as day Thy understanding,
Thy way make clear
Work in my thoughts
And sing in my heart Thy truths
Thy plans carefully laid on my heart
Let Thy work be done in me*

Your Touch

I bow before Thee, my King
I am amazed at Thy loving providence
I ride high on the clouds of Your love

I stand in awe at Thy works
I stand in awe at Thy ways
What I think impossible- You make it so

You breathe it into being
When I am at my lowest ebb
You reach down and touch me
Your touch is all I need
Your touch is all I want
What I see as untouchable - You touch

What I see as unreachable - You reach
Come close to me
Let me touch, let me reach with You

Step By Step

Step by step
I walk in Thy ways
That I may be steady
Confession by confession
I take my sins to Thee
That I may not stray
Verse by verse
In Thee I am grounded
As in Thy Word I stay
Prayer by prayer
On bended knee I pray
For a closer walk with Thee
Walking each day
Step by step

When

When I stand in the light of Your Word

Everything around me fades away

Lies and deception can't stand

When I study Your Word, applying it

To my heart, my heart leaps for joy

When I wait upon You in prayer

It is then I have come into the Throne room of the Almighty

When I apply what You

Have spoken to my heart

Your Word is fulfilled in me

When I open my heart to Your love

Good works will follow in my life

More

More - of You and Your grace

More - time in Your presence

Waiting, seeking Your guidance

More - time in Your Word

That I may know You

More - holiness so to be like You

More - humbleness to be used of You

More - of Your love, that I too may love

More - of Your Spirit

That Your fruit may abound

More - of denying self

That I may obtain You

A Clear Path

A clear path is given to heaven
There are no obstacles in my way
My soul has been purchased
Jesus, the Lamb of God, paid the way
A clear path given the day of my salvation
Nothing from my past can hold me back
I have been bought with the blood of Jesus
Nothing I have done can hinder my journey
For God's love and mercy now adorns me
My filthy rags of sin are laid aside
Replaced with robes of righteousness
As the bride of Christ, accepted into heaven
Jesus sacrifice on Calvary's tree that day
Made a clear path to heaven for me
No fears or doubts can hold me back
Just as no good works could get me there
Only my faith in God's promise of salvation
Has made a clear path now I walk to God

Quiet Time

*Father help me to rest in You
To find perfect peace of mind
In knowing You are in control
Then I can have perfect rest
Quiet my spirit, O Lord
The rest I need can only come from You
As I bask in your presence daily
Fear and doubts no longer assail me
As I once again turn my thoughts to You
In my quiet time, I come to You.*

The Master Gardener

*The Holy Spirit is the Master Gardener in my life
As He toils in my life to produce a beautiful crop
I am helpless to make changes needed to purify me
The gardener breaks up the hardened clods of bitterness
And raking out the rocks of unproductiveness
Taking time to cultivate the ground into workable soil
Uprooting all evil by the turning over and over my thoughts
Until they are acceptable and pleasing to Him
Then adding the nutrients of love, joy and peace to my life
Which in turn produces a great harvest to His glory
Daily working, removing any evil taking root in my heart
Taking care not to uproot the tender shoots of goodness
Looking to see if kindness and longsuffering
Are ready to break ground
As the Master Gardener waters and toils over His crop,
Planted so carefully
I am His garden, reaping a harvest of love
Planted by the Master Gardener*

I Am Loved

I am loved, by the great I AM
What can compare or come close
To being in Your presence
I quietly sit at Your feet
Overwhelmed by Your grace
My holiness comes from You
I am strengthened by Your love
Washed clean of all unrighteousness
So I stand with raised hands
Singing praises of thanks to Your Name
The very essence of Your love
Flows through me
How gracious is Your love
To one so undeserving as I am
By the great I AM , I am loved

You Came

*I came and You touched me once again
I came and You set my heart a singing
You came and opened my eyes to see
You came and once again set me free*

Give Me

Give me faith to obey
Give me love to forgive
Give me hope to hang on
Give me mercy to others
Give me forgiveness of my sins
Give me guidance that leads me
Give me peace from knowing You
Give me eternal life forever
Your love forever give me

O LORD

Keep me, O Lord, safe in Your arms
That I may not walk away
Keep me, O Lord, pure and holy
That I may not become self-righteous
Keep me, O Lord, in Your Word
That I may be daily strengthened
Keep me, O Lord, on my knees
That I may seek Your guidance
Keep me, O Lord, filled with Your Spirit
That I may be led in Your ways
Keep me, O Lord, in Your house of worship
That I may edify my brother
Keep me, O Lord, safe in Your arms

Fruit

Love, for others brings
Joy, in my heart, giving me
Peace, flowing like a river
The three hang together, solidifying each other
Complimenting, bringing reassurance in my life
Patience, flowing out of me, shows the Kindness, in my heart, seeing in me a
Goodness, towards others
The three bringing together a life of love,
Joy and peace, giving a newness of life
Faithfulness, flowing strong in me and a
Gentleness, in me, and I have
Self-control, ruling in my heart
These three make my life complete
Knowing I am all I can be

Once Again

*I am repentant, I will not give up
I will ask once again for God's help
My feet shall not stay planted in routine
Once again I seek God's guidance for my life
I will venture out in new territory, to new heights
I will sing a new song of hope, in my heart daily
With an repentant heart, I will walk away from failure
Once again I shall be more than triumphant, in You
All shall see the new road that I have taken, with You
All Your new beginnings will appear gloriously, in me
As I lay my failures at Thy feet, and walk anew with You*

Keep Me

*Keep me, O, Lord safe in Your arms
That I may not stray
Keep me, O, Lord pure and holy
That I may not lose my way
Keep me, O, Lord in Thy Word
That I may be daily strengthened
Keep me, O, Lord on my knees
That I may seek Your will Keep me, O, Lord filled with Thy Spirit
That I may be led in Your ways
Keep me, O, Lord till my journey's end
That I may find Your perfect rest
Keep me, O, Lord keep me*

Daring To Risk

Daring to risk, I step out in faith
Taking a risk, I speak out in love
The ground around is shaking
Yet I stand firm, daring to risk
I walk with my Lord by faith
Taking the risk, I follow Him
As my Lord leads me along
If I never take a risk
Will Your voice grow silent
As I step back in unbelief
Afraid to take the risk
Lost souls never plucked
From the enemy's hand
As my Lord ask
May I never fear to risk

A New Day

A new day, a new heart
Secure, renewed in Jesus
A newness of heart and mind
I begin each new day with Jesus
Make me pure of mind and heart
Cleansed in the blood of Jesus
Hearing the Holy Spirit's voice
I walk in newness each day
Glorifying Jehovah God
Putting my failures behind me
I walk with God each new day

Freedom

Freed from sin, I am free to please you
Free, free to serve with my whole heart
Now I freely trust in you
Freed from the miry pit of anxiety
Free, free from unbelief
My faith can work to save others
Freed from anger and hate
Your love flows freely through me
Freed from doubt
Free, free from death's grip
I can trust in Your promises
Freed by the Lord God Almighty
I shall live eternally
Freed to glorify Him
Free, free to worship before you
Freed at the price of God's
Only begotten Son
Now I am forever free

Praise

*I shall praise You, with a heart of love
My praise is seen in my obedience to You
With a grateful heart I praise You
With lifted hands, in sincerity of praise
I bow before You, O Lord
I cry holy, holy in praises to Your Name
With obedience to You, my praise is lifted
I lift up my request before You, with adoration
Father God let my life be an offering of praise
I praise You with my whole heart, mind and soul
Out of my love for You, I sing praise
I praise You my God, my King*

See Me

*See me as clothed in righteousness
Look not at my naked, torn body
Having been stripped of all pride
Let not Your beauty fade away
See me as cleansed and holy
Washed and purified in Your love
Look on me with eyes of a loving Father
As I lie here cringing in fear of retribution
May I see Your mercies extended to me
See me, O Lord, clothed in Your beauty
No more covered in ashes of mourning
See me now bathed in Your forgiveness
Taking away my guilt and shame forever
See me as what I shall become in You
In Your beauty is where I now stand*

I Can See

*Thank you, God
For opening my eyes
I was blind, now I can see
Through Your grace given to me
And now it is "well with my soul"
All fear has gone away
Through Your eyes, now I can see*

New Beginnings

*New beginnings let them be
A time of rejoicing, lifting hands
New in the fullness of Your love
Seeing for the first time
The providence of You in me
Knowing life will never be the same
As new beginnings shape my life
Flowing through me, Your love
In new beginnings grace abounds
Life has new meaning to me
A purpose has been found in You
Life has begun, in new beginnings*

My Friend

*You, my Lord are my friend
Never have You left me alone
Your faithfulness is always true
When no one could be found
You walked with me each day
When no one ever calls
You gently whisper in my ear
You, my Lord are my friend
Thank you, Lord for staying
When others have walked away
And turned their backs, and didn't stay
When they never had a thought of me
Your thoughts continuously turn to me
Thank you, my Lord for Your love
Yours is a friendship without end*

Let Your Peace

Let Your peace flow through me
Washing away doubt and fears
Cleanse my thoughts as Your love
Leads me into righteous living
Holy, purified and sanctified in You
Let Your peace be the stabilizing
Force in my life, then I am
Qualified to do Your work, Lord
As Your peace flows from me

Your Word

*As I read Your Word again, Lord
Let it get down inside, flowing in me
Like a blind man's eyes, first seeing
Reveal the truths of Your Word to me
Use the circumstances in my life
To make my heart right with You
As You unfold Your plan in me
May I submit, as You design my life
Though I know not where You lead
You're in each circumstance of my life
Let Your Holy Spirit guide me, not emotions
As I respond to Your whispers, gently guiding
From reading Your Word, truth flows through me*

My Hope Be

*Let my hope be in You
As I stand on Your promises
As I walk in Your ways
As Your love embraces me
May I know You are there
As Your spirit comforts me
Let my hope be always in You*

I Shall Walk

I shall get rid of all uncleanness
And I shall walk in uprightness
No longer following after my evil ways
From this day forth, I lay down my sin
And I shall walk in newness of life
No longer disgracing Jesus Name
And I shall take up robes of holiness
As I shall stand before my King, my God

Your Love, Joy And Peace

*Forgive me Jesus for not letting Your love,
Joy and peace permeate my soul
I have lost sight of Your purpose for my life
Connect me once again with Your Cross
How great Your love, shed for me at Calvary
Your undying love, helping me to hold on
Give me Your love, joy and peace once more
Let my thoughts transcend the circumstances
That now are surrounding me
As Your word gives me hope to stand again
I have all I need as Your love sustains me
Your joy fills me, Your peace surrounds me
Thank you Jesus for Your love, joy and peace*

When I Don't Know

When I don't know which way to go
You step in and take my hand
You draw me out of despair and confusion
You place me gently in Your bosom
Tenderly caring for my every need
Your hedge of protection, calms my fears
I no longer wander aimlessly in a desert
As You lead me to the oasis of Your love
Directing me in the paths of righteousness
I shall no longer fear, for my God is Holy

Therefore

Thy blood has covered my sins
Therefore, I have been set free
For Thy love has comforted me
Therefore, I shall give Thee praise
At the Cross, You stood up for me
Therefore, I shall stand in the gap
And I will no longer stand alone
Therefore, I am humbled by Thy grace
You have set angels round about me
Therefore, I am at rest and peace

The Gift

*Thank you Lord, for the gift given me
May the seeds of love be sown forth
As Your Holy Spirit spreads Your Word
And the gift planted in me will mature
As a field of love ready for harvest
Spreading over the country side,
It's seeds carried on the winds of love
To many from one plant, seeds will grow
Planted in hearts, by Your gift given
Grown in me to enrich and edify others*

If I Had Doubts

*If I had doubts before
They were left at the door of faith
When I can't see which way to go
It is You who lights the way
If I had doubts before
Your Holy Spirit has dispelled them
For when I am wandering helplessly
Your voice was spoken, amidst fear
If I had doubts before
Your grace has dispelled them all
It is Your touch given, and hope remains
No longer will I let doubts assail me
No more forgetting Your love
No longer walking with fear and doubts
No more shunning Your gentle touch
No longer hope being clouded by doubts
If I had doubts before, now they are dispelled*

In Humbled Stance

*In humbled stance
I acknowledge my sins to You
With bowed head and raised hands
In humbled stance, I come to You
With bowed head, I look deep within
With raised hands, I lift my sins to You
Your sovereignty acknowledged,
In a humbled stance*

Thank You Lord

Thank you Lord, that I belong to You
And that I am Your child
Now I walk in uprightness of heart
And thoughts
I no longer walk with instability, wavering
Without direction
Thank you Lord, that You are my strength
The high tower that I run to,
For safety
As I dwell under the shadow of Your wing
I will not fear, the evil and terrors about me
Thank you Lord, for Your right hand
That upholds me
With Your word You guide me, leading me
Where You desire me to go
Thank you Lord, that I belong to You,
I am Yours
Cleansed by the blood of the Lamb
No more held by fear of condemnation
I am now washed in the laver of Your love

Someday

Lord, someday I will be set free
Sin will no longer conquer me
As I take flight to heaven above
Sins grasp will no longer hold me
Lord, in the meantime I will fight
My mind on the course, set for me
In freedom, I shall walk someday
My flesh will no longer beckon me
And from this battle warring in me
Lord, someday You will set me free
